SATELLITE CINEMA®

FEATURE MOVIES

* Hit movies months before they are released to cable television.
* Two choices each night during the early evening hours.

FREE PREVIEWS

* Each evening, free previews are shown of the night's attractions. Consult the program schedule for specific times.

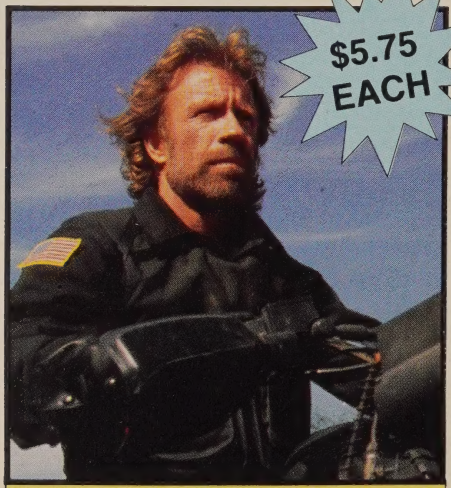
MURPHY'S ROMANCE

(PG-13) (2:15)

Romantic comedy about a divorced mother (Sally Field) who starts life anew on an Arizona ranch where she meets the widowed town pharmacist (James Garner). Their relationship blossoms unexpectedly and somewhat comically. Things get complicated with the reappearance of her attractive, ne'er do well former husband.

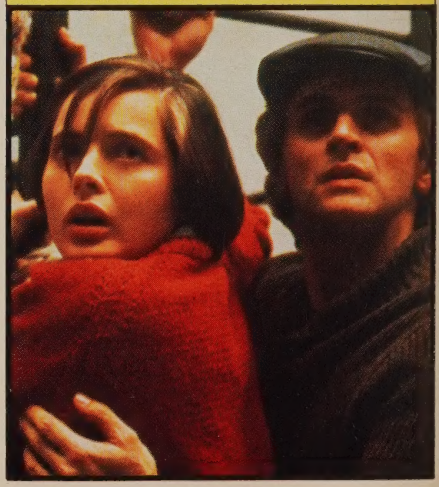


$5.75 EACH

WHITE NIGHTS

(PG-13) (1:47)

Eight years after defecting to the West, former Russian ballet star (Michail Baryshnikov) crash lands in Siberia. The KGB uses him as a symbol of the repentant, returning defector. In an effort to regain his freedom, the dancer becomes involved with an American expatriate. Together, they conceive a daring plan of action which, hopefully, will return them to America.



THE DELTA FORCE

(R) (2:09)

Anguished Americans watch helplessly as U.S. citizens undergo a terrifying ordeal when their plane is hijacked by terrorists. The Delta Force, an elite group of highly trained and heavily armed commandoes (led by Chuck Norris and Lee Marvin), fight to rescue the hostages from the cruel hands of revolutionary fanatics in the Middle East.

SATELLITE CINEMA®

ADULT DOUBLE FEATURE

* Adult movies shown late in the evening (after 9 p.m. Central and Pacific and after 10 p.m. Eastern and Mountain) are sensuous, sexy, and sophisticated.
* Although NOT X-rated, these movies are definitely adult entertainment and are not recommended for family viewing. Tune in tonight and enjoy the finest in adult entertainment.

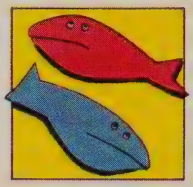
HOROSCOPE

CAPRICORN December 22-January 19 Ambitious Capricorns will find July a good month to make career moves at the office and aggressive overtures to a significant other. The stars look very favorable for both money and love.

AQUARIUS January 20-February 18 Aquarians are the object of admiration this month, as family, friends and fellow workers gather round to applaud a recent success. Don't allow yourself to get a swollen head, however; overconfidence is particularly dangerous for you.



PISCES February 19-March 20 A lull at the office has had you down about your career, but take heart: things will pick up with speed toward the end of the month. You'll find yourself approaching your work with enthusiasm you thought was gone for good.

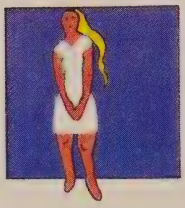
ARIES March 21-April 19 It's summer,and everyone around you seems to be falling head over heels in love. Your own love life, on the other hand, is dishearteningly barren. It's very possible, however, that a reunion will bring you into contact with someone very special from your past.

TAURUS April 20-May 20 Your family appreciates your Taurean stability this month when a small crisis erupts. Remain even-handed and fair and you will prove the peacemaker. In your own life, this is a month for relaxing and reassessing domestic situations.

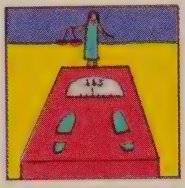
GEMINI May 21-June 21 Lately you've been quite the hedonist, indulging in pleasures without regard for the feelings of others. It's been a lot of fun, but your conscience soon catches up with you. Pay attention to friends you may have been ignoring.

CANCER June 22-July 22 It's beach season for you Crabs, and a sure cure for any problems Cancerians have typically bottled up would be a nice sabbatical by the shore. Don't be surprised if a beach-towel neighbor turns into a lasting friend.

LEO July 23-August 22 The stars are kind to Leos as you approach a birthday month.With so much good luck smiling you in the face, this could be a good time to make the hard decisions you've been putting off for months.



VIRGO August 23-September 22 It's time to look at things with your heart instead of your head. Although this isn't usually a problem for sensual Virgo, true love is changing your perspective. Don't let it! Go after what you want, and forget about the consequences.



LIBRA September 23-October 23 Co-workers appreciate your sense of fun and creativity. Like most air signs, though, you Libras are easily bored. Find something to challenge you this month — a new hobby.

SCORPIO October 24-November 22 Nervous Scorpios have got to try to relax this month. It's summer, the weather is beautiful — why not unwind, skip work, and enjoy a quiet day by a swimming pool?

SAGITTARIUS November 23-December 21 An important matter — probably job-related — will force you to relocate to a new city. Don't be nervous; your winning ways will have you among new friends in no time at all.

When There's So Much To Lose . . .

"Drinking and driving can ruin your life. And maybe end someone else's. If you have been drinking, please follow these tips for everyone's safety.

—Decide in advance who's driving home. Designate a driver who won't drink.

—Call a cab or check in for the night . . . it's cheaper than court and a fine. Or worse. Please don't drink and drive. You can live without it.

It's up to you.

Isabella Rossellini

Isabella Rossellini, whose internationally recognized face has been photographed by the likes of Richard Avedon, Bruce Weber and Bill King, now graces the screen with her first starring role in director Taylor Hackford's White Nights, a tale of international intrigue, adventure and romance.

Born in Rome in 1952, Isabella and her twin sister Ingrid are the daughters of celebrated actress Ingrid Bergman and Italian director Roberto Rossellini. Despite her parents' divorce when she was 5, she grew up in a tight-knit family. For many years in Rome, Roberto Rossellini lived across the street from his daughters and spent much time with them. Isabella and Ingrid also enjoyed the friendship of their half-sister Pia and Roberto Rossellini's three other children.

Rossellini recalls, "Like all Italian children, we were integrated into adult life, taken to restaurants, to the theater, doing whatever they did." When Rossellini was 13, she was struck down with scoliosis. Often during her two-year fight against this painful illness, which can damage the spine, she was in a head-to-toe cast. But under the devoted care of her mother and sister, she recovered and went on to become "a disaster at school" in Paris and Rome, in contrast to her scholarly twin.

Rossellini began her career with summer jobs in Europe and Africa on location in the costume department of her father's movies. In between films, she taught Italian in New York. She also worked for RAI (Italian Television) in its New York bureau.

Next, she began appearing on Italian TV as a reporter, which was followed by appearances on The Other Sunday, a weekly comedy show that brought her celebrity status in Italy. Rossellini's film debut was the Taviani brothers' The Meadow, followed by Pap'occhio, based on her comedy shows. In 1975 she appeared in a cameo role in Vincente Minnelli's A Matter of Time, which starred her mother and Liza Minnelli.

In addition to her accomplishments as an actress, Rossellini enjoys a fabulously successful career as a model. Hers is the face in the Lancome advertisements and she is one of the most sought-after international covergirls.

Wherever she went on location during the filming of White Nights, the public gathered, seeking autographs and taking her picture. The media traveled from all over to interview her.

Rossellini resides in New York City with her husband, Jonathan Wiedemann, and her 1-year-old daughter, Elettra-Ingrid.

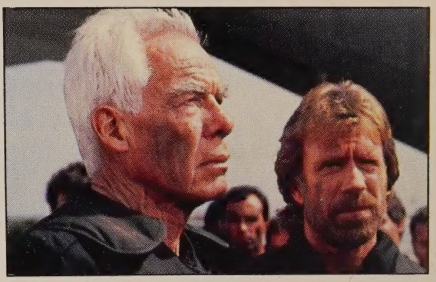
CRITIC'S CORNER

BEVERLY HILLS COP Eddie Murphy. What a kidder. Axel Foley is his name, being cute and rebellious is his game. Murphy is nothing short of brilliant as the streetwise cop who lands in posh Beverly Hills to "unofficially" investigate the murder of a childhood friend. But all those bureaucratic, stuffy L.A. policemen don't understand Foley's unconventional ways, trying every idea their little minds can muster to rid the town of its slightly over-the-top visitor. Yet our man shows them the real game of the law when he discovers drug dealing and dirty doings (and those are just the D's) and shows the wimpy L.A. cops that sometimes the end does justify the means. The high-spirited, action-packed comedy co-stars Judge Reinhold, Lisa Eilbacher and Bronson Pinchot, who gives a brief but hilarious performance as the unforgettable and indecipherable Serge.

WHITE NIGHTS Director Taylor Hackford (An Officer and a Gentleman) brings his romantic touch to this tale about the clash between East and West as embodied by the parallel lives of two dancers. Mikhail Baryshnikov is a Soviet ballet dancer who defects and finds stardom in the United States. When his plane crashes in Moscow, however, Soviet officials force him to remain in Russia and to dance. Gregory Hines is an American Vietnam vet who, disillusioned with his own country, has defected to the Soviet Union, where he manages and performs with a small dance troupe. Hines' help is enlisted by the Soviets who hope to force the unwilling star to perform. The clash between the two men turns into friendship when they begin to dance together; the strength of that bond is tested as they plan and attempt to execute a climactic escape. Highlighted by Lionel Ritchie's Oscar-winning song, "Say You, Say Me" as well as by spectacular dance sequences, the moving film also stars Isabella Rossellini.

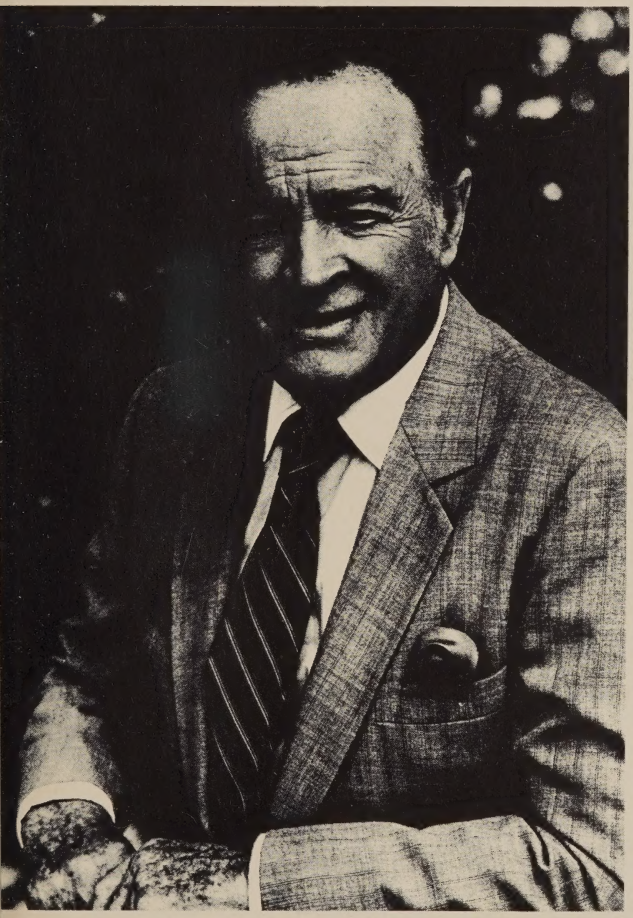
PRIZZI'S HONOR Jack Nicholson gives a marvelously off-beat comic performance as Charley Partanna, a loyal but not-so-bright Mafia hitman, in this outrageous black comedy from director John Huston. The idyllic world of every-day hits and Mafiosa mayhem is disrupted when Charley falls for the beautiful Irene Walker (played with aplomb by Kathleen Turner), herself a hitwoman for a rival mafia family. What's a godfather to do? William Hickey gives a bravura performance as the Don whose closet skeleton is his granddaughter, played by the mesmerizing Anjelica Huston, who won an Academy Award for her performance as the black sheep of the Prizzi family. This deliciously spoofy look at the mob is a treat for fans of Nicholson, Huston (father and daughter) and lovers of black comedy at its finest.



THE DELTA FORCE This timely adventure drama stars two of the tougher movie idols, Chuck Norris and Lee Marvin. Based on the famous hijacking of the TWA airliner bound for Rome, this thriller is supposed to show how a real rescue mission should be carried out. As with most disaster movies, we first get to know some of the passengers. An all-star cast rounds out this flight list including Shelley Winters, Joey Bishop, Martin Balsam, George Kennedy and the German actress Hanna Schygulla who plays the stoic flight attendent who holds everyone together. Chuck Norris, strong and silent for a change, shows the bad guys who's boss as he turns into a one-man army to fight the Middle-Eastern terrorist and rescue the innocent Americans. Although suspension of belief is a prerequisite for viewing this movie, it's a feel good, pro-American movie. The box-office figures prove that's what Americans like.

MURPHY 'S ROMANCE This contemporary romance reunites Norma Rae's Oscar-winning team of director Martin Ritt, screenwriters Irving Ravetch and Harriet Frank, Jr. and Sally Field; the similarities between the two films are therefore both understandable and welcome. Like the heroine she played in Norma Rae, Field's Emma Moriarity is a strong-willed woman whose determination allows her to change her life for the better. A divorced, single mother trying to make it as a horse rancher, she's frowned upon by her conservative small town until a middle-aged pharmacist (James Garner) pitches in to lend a helping hand. Friendship rather than love characterizes the relationship between the two, until her ex-husband arrives on the scene and forces everyone involved to make important and fulfilling decisions.

"There's a new program that offers real financial benefits when you help the jobless."



"They want to work. You train them. This program will help pay for it."

The Job Training Partnership Act.

This landmark program literally establishes a partnership between business and government to provide training and employment for the jobless.

Reimbursement is available for training and hiring willing workers.

The Act provides up to 50% of on-the-job training costs. And you may qualify for tax credits of up to 50% of the first year salary.

Administered by your local private industry council.

The private industry council is composed of local business leaders who make up at least 51% of its members. Whenever possible, half of these business members are from small businesses. Other representatives are from community groups.

The local private industry council is responsible for tailoring the Job Training Partnership Act so it meets specific local needs.

Put the Partnership Act to work now.

Call your private industry council for information about how the Act can benefit you and the jobless.

TDK HS eliminates the fuss about which video cassette to buy because TDK HS delivers a Higher Standard of performance that exceeds the demands of today's sophisticated VCRs.

Virtually eliminates bleeding colors and distorted images, outperforming typical standard video cassettes.

TDK's new binder system helps to eliminate dropouts because it locks TDK's magnetic particles firmly onto the film base, so your picture is there to stay, play after play.

With these potential problems eliminated, what's left? Pure performance. It's what you'd expect from TDK's Super Avilyn technology.

And to further assure that TDK HS maintains its Higher Standards of performance, we've encased it in our Super Precision cassette shell mechanism for smoother, more reliable tape transport.

TDK HS video cassettes —they're the number one choice for a Higher Standard of performance. By the process of elimination.
